I wish to thank the voters of York ounty for the very handsome vote accorded me in the recent primary elecion. I am proud indeed to be the first representative chosen from among the otton mill workers of York county to represent York county. I am delighted, not alone for the honor accorded ne, but that the claims of the mill peo ple have been recognized. Respectfully,

E. Gettys Nunn Card from W. B. Riddle. I wish to thank the people of York ounty for voting for me as one of their representatives in the legislature at the first primary. I now wish to ask the voters for their support in the second primary election on September 8th. I feel assured that my past service and experience has prepared m for better work in the future. Again thanking the Democracy of York county for their support, and asking them again to support me, I am, sincerely, W. B. Riddle. Sincerely, W. B. Riddle Clover R. F. D. 2, Sept. 2, 1914. Stop That First Fall Cough. The REVILLE

In the army the soldiers are waked In the army the soldiers are waked in the morning by the blowing of the Reville, on a bugle. Some wag has said that the bugle says, "I can't get 'em up; I can't get 'em up; I can't get 'em up this morning." There is a greater army than Uncle Sam's standing army that is awakened every morning by the Reville, sounded by "BIG BEN" ALARM CLOCKS and this big army has to get up to shut this big army has to get up to shut off the strident voice of BIG BEN; because if he is not CHOKED he keeps right on the job until some-body moves.
